

7. HYMN of the DAY: “Like the Very Days of Noah ” Matthew 24, Isaiah 1-2, Advent I “A” for Dec. 1, 2013
(suggested melody - 8.7.8.7.D LSB # 803 “Joyful, Joyful”, Ode to Joy - Ludwig von Beethoven) Copyright©2013 Scott R. Blazek

1. “Like the very days of Noah,…”
Hear the words that Christ did say
“No one knows the time or hour!
Comes the thief in night or day!
See two working, one is taken
H’ven and earth will pass away.”
Us Christ will not leave forsaken
His Word will not pass away!
2. Ox and donkey know their masters
But God’s people somehow stray
Through their sin and foolish pleasures
From the Lord, folk turn away.
Near the last day, see what’s coming.
They will talk of war no more.
Isaiah, the prophet, telling
What the nations will abhor!
3. “Come unto God’s holy mountain!”
His instructions He will teach.
Father sending His Begotten
Many peoples, He will reach!
Plowshares from the swords are hammered
Pruning hooks are made from spears
For the nations, peace is gathered
Now Christ takes away our fears!
4. Christ’s first Advent comes in weakness
Born of woman, maiden pure.
Came to save those lost in darkness;
Comes again to judge for sure.
See the fig tree branch gets tender
Recognize the time is near!
If you know Christ as Your Savior,
As your Judge, you need not fear!
