

10. HYMN of the DAY: “One Can’t Serve God and Mammon” Pentecost XVIII “C”

Luke 16: 13, I Timothy 2: 3-6 (Aug. 30 for Sept. 22, 2013; to the melody of LSB 684, 7.6.7.6.D ) Copyright©2013 Scott R. Blazek

1. One can’t serve God and mammon,
Is what our Savior said.
One cannot serve two masters;
Love one, the other dread!
For either he’ll respect one,
The other he’ll despise!
To understand this saying,
God’s Spirit makes one wise!

2. For many who love money
Will wander from the faith.
It is the root of evil;
Trust not what’s in your safe!
For those who want to get rich
Fall fast into a snare
God’s people, flee from these things.
Temptations! All beware!

3. To God, there’s only One Way,
The Man called Jesus Christ!
He gave Himself a ransom
To pay the awful price.
God wants all men to be saved
To all, the Truth be known
Our money can’t buy God’s love
By grace we’re saved alone!
