

14. “We Are Called by the Lord” or “Grace and His Love” 3rd Sunday after the Resurrection, A Series
I Peter 1 (17-22), to the tune of “Trust and Obey”, 6.6.9.D with Refrain, Copyright©1986Scott R. Blazek

1. We are called by the Lord through the light of His Word

What a glory we never can prove
Sa-*al*vation He'll give; by His name we shall live
For He grants us His grace and His love.

(Refrain): Grace and His love, which comes down from above
Makes us happy in Jesus
By His grace and His love!

2. Not our silver or gold, nor our good works we're told

Could e're buy God's true favor or love,
The price paid for the lost was Christ nailed to a cross
For He'll wash our souls clean with His blood. (Refrain) (rise for verse 3)

△ 3. May we through all our days come together in praise

To the Father, Son and Holy Dove,
That we ever stand fast, till the trumpet at last
Calls us home, where we'll live in His love. (Refrain)
